Company: THC The Himalayan Chocolates

Location: Kullu - Manali

Reporting: Founder, Rohan Keshewar

About THC The Himalayan Chocolates: THC The Himalayan Chocolates is a socially conscious and innovative chocolate company, dedicated to crafting high-quality chocolates while making a positive impact on local communities and the environment. We believe that sustainable business practices are powerful tools for creating meaningful change.

Role Overview: We're looking for a talented Photographer and Videographer to join our team! This role involves managing the entire photo and video production process, capturing engaging and dynamic content for our social media channels and website. You will collaborate closely with our founder, Rohan Keshewar, and embark on shoots in various picturesque locations across the Himalayas. Your creative vision and eye for composition will be vital to communicating our brand's story effectively. This position is ideal for someone passionate about photography and videography, with strong time management skills and a commitment to quality.

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan, shoot, and edit content that aligns with our brand's style and values.
- Perform video editing and color grading to create polished, visually appealing final products.
- Travel to diverse locations as needed for filming, adapting to different environments and conditions.
- Flexibly respond to changing project needs and filming requirements.
- Stay updated on the latest video technology and trends.

Qualifications:

- Proficiency in operating professional camera equipment/iPhone.
- Proven ability to capture footage that reflects our brand's aesthetic and message.
- Expertise in video editing software and color grading techniques.
- Willingness and ability to travel for on-site shoots.

Compensation:

- ₹15,000 per month for the 3-month project duration
- Free stay and meals are provided!
- Opportunity for conversion to a full-time position based on performance

How to Apply: If you're passionate about photography and videography, and eager to bring your creativity to our team, we invite you to apply! Please send your resume and a cover letter detailing your experience to rohan@thehimalayanchocolates.com. Be sure to include any portfolios or samples of your work, if available. We look forward to seeing your talent!
